

About Nicolette Wolf

For 23 years Nicolette has been helping senior and emerging leaders find their authentic voice for their business and personal success. She enables them to engage and inspire others, build trust and manage the expectations of their internal and external audiences - and to do this with vision, strategy and purpose.

Nicolette has created and coached bespoke programs in over 300 major organisations such as Barclays, British Airways, Tesco, UBS, Chicago Booth, Credit Suisse, Bayes Business School, Serco, Lloyds Bank and Jaguar Land Rover.

Trained as an opera singer and actress, Nicolette started her career in London's West End before moving into TV, film and radio. She then became Head of Voice at the Birmingham Academy of Music. Meanwhile, she qualified in Adult Coaching at Warwick University and received her EMCC Global qualification as a Senior Practitioner Executive Coach.

Combining her leadership experience with her voice and performance expertise and her coaching skills, Nicolette has become a lead voice consultant in the leadership communication space. She uses her plethora of experience to accelerate leaders' development success. She helps people deliver key messages with impact, influence others more effectively, and create generosity in the workplace.

Nicolette trains and coaches C-Suite, elite and emerging leaders across all sectors and in various formats. She also has broad experience in supporting leaders with preparing for keynote speeches, creating podcasts or video productions, and editorial contributions.

Nicolette is passionate about philanthropy. For six years, she fulfilled the role of CEO of City Philanthropy Charity BeMORE. She also created and delivered Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) programs for clients such as Barclays, Hoares Bank and Goldman Sachs. Nicolette is an Ordained Priest for the Church of England.

Examples of Nicolette's work

- Coached a new CEO of a major financial organisation to lead and communicate his new strategy effectively and inspirationally enhancing both his company's reputation and his personal and professional image.
- Worked with a senior technical director to complement her technical expertise with key communication skills, enabling her to communicate with more impact and clarity, and boost her confidence when communicating to the Board.
- Supported a CEO and CFO with in-message creation and improving their presentation delivery, helping them to deliver powerful presentations to VCs and Banks and grow their business
- Developed and delivered a series of workshops for new consultants at a major consulting firm, to develop their presentation and communication impact

Accreditations

- City and Guilds Adult Teaching 7407 (Warwick University)
- EMCC EIA Senior Practitioner Executive Coach
- Ordained Priest in the Church of England

Education

- Post Graduate Diploma: Acting, Mountview Theatre School (Durham University)
- Associate of the London College of Music
- BA Hons Degree: Classical Voice & Performance, London College of Music
- Diploma in Theology (Wycliffe Hall, Oxford University)
- Diploma in Theology (St Mellitus, Durham University)

What our clients say about Nicolette

- "I have worked with Nicolette three times. Her coaching has transformed my communication, delivery, and self-view, leading to two promotions. She ensured I was the "slam dunk" candidate in interviews. Nicolette's guidance covers strategy, presentation skills, body language, and mental preparation. Energetic, creative, and trustworthy, she provides invaluable advice. I will continue seeking her guidance as I advance in my career." Senior Leader at Newton IM, Non-Executive Director, Board Member:
- "I thought I was a reasonable presenter, but Nicolette helped me move up a couple of gears. Evidence of the impact showed through at a recent European Conference when the audience scored my presentation higher than any other from the 2-day event." CEO, The Wesleyan
- "Nicolette leverages her professional training in acting to hone communication skills in executives. Her coaching approach is unique in the Industry. She has an impressive client list, with many positive accolades. She truly understands how to make an impact and how to develop dormant or hidden skills in others to achieve real impact with increased self-confidence." Global Head, USB